Membership Policy

Revision Date: January 1, 2008

1.0 Policy

It is the policy of Habitat for Horses, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as "HfH") to offer memberships to the general public.

2.0 Procedure

HfH accepts membership applications from the general public. The following membership types are available:

Individual	$35
Corporate Memberships	$300 (Individual memberships for $10/person)
Lifetime Member	$2,500

All members will receive a copy of the newsletter and important announcements pertaining to HfH's business.

Memberships run from the 1st day of the month in which they are paid until the last day of the previous month one year later. Renewal notices will be mailed out approximately one month before the membership expires. If the member does not renew his/her memberships by the date of its expiration, the member will lose all rights and privileges that are granted to the members.

Memberships are non-voting. HfH and its Board of Directors reserve the right to refuse or revoke membership of any individuals or groups who are convicted of animal abuse, neglect, or abandonment. The Board of Directors may vote unanimously to revoke the membership of any member for reasons dictated by the Board of Directors.

Confidentiality Statement: Certain information pertaining to HfH may be confidential in nature and members are to use discretion in discussing policies, current cases and other related issues with non- members. It is a privilege as a member to be party to certain email lists, and that no email messages received from these lists may be forwarded to anyone not belonging to that list without first obtaining permission from member of the Board of Directors of HfH.
